

The graph above exhibits the difference between the influenza mortality age distributions of the 1918 Flu epidemic and normal mortality rates. Deaths per 100,000 persons in each age group in the United States for the prior pandemic years, 1911-1917 (dashed line) and the pandemic of the 1918 Flu (solid line).